

PRIVACY POLICY

Personally Identifiable Information We Collect

We collect personally identifiable information when you provide it to us, such as when you place an order or send us an e-mail. We may also receive information about you from other sources and add it to the information you have provided to us.

Anonymous Information

We collect anonymous information which refers to data that cannot be tied back to a specific individual. For example, we collect some information each time a visitor comes to our site so we can improve the overall quality of the visitor's online experience.

We collect the visitor's IP address (e.g., whether the user is logged on from ibm.com or aol.com), referral data (e.g., the Internet address of the last Web page visited by a user before clicking over to our site), and browser and platform type (e.g., a Netscape browser on a Macintosh platform).

We collect this user information for purposes of product monitoring, product improvement, and targeted advertising.

Co-Branded Sites and Services

When you use a co-branded service within our site, or register or otherwise provide information on a co-branded site, you grant us permission to pass the information collected back to that service or site partner. Their use of your information is subject to their applicable privacy policies.

Security

We use reasonable precautions to keep the personal information you disclose to our website secure and do not release this information to any third parties.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy may be modified from time to time. Any modifications to our privacy policy will be reflected first on this page, so check back often. If there is a significant change, we will indicate on our site that our privacy policy has changed and provide a link to the new policy.
